New Delhi, February 28, 2017: RezLive.com (A Product of Travel Designer Group), had a fruitful SATTE, 2017 which was held in New Delhi and showcased its offering to the Travel Trade. This year at SATTE was all together a special year as RezLive.com celebrated its "10 years of online presence" with its travel partners.

Furthermore, RezLive.com used the SATTE platform to brief its clients and prospects about "RezLive.com Specialist" eLearning program, API & White label and release of plethora of advanced features on its system. The response for the RezLive.com Specialist program was such phenomenal, that on the first day of the launch itself, 100+ travel agents got registered for the same. Also, at the end of the program, one lucky travel partner (who has cleared the program and is a RezLive.com Specialist) will get a chance to win an iPhone through a lucky draw (*T&C Apply).

Over the three days of the event, RezLive.com was able to leverage real business opportunities and engaged in valuable business conversations, met new contacts, networked in a fresh new environment and were able to gain better insights about the local market and at the same time were happy to see its travel partners coming in large number to appreciate their work and the kind of extraordinary services they provide to them round the clock.

Jaal Shah, Group Managing Director, Travel Designer Group says 'SATTE, 2017 was a fruitful and successful event for us, wherein we celebrated the 10 years of online presence of RezLive.com with our local travel partners and at the same time briefed them on "RezLive.com Specialist" eLearning program. Also, the team met Travel Partners who turned up in great numbers to look at various possibilities of getting associated with us and at the same time witnessed the award winning innovations by RezLive.com
