

RezLive.com and Banyan Tree organises product training session at Ahmedabad

October 27, 2015

RezLive.com (A product of Travel Designer Group) in coordination with Banyan tree and resorts (an international hospitality brand that manages and develops resorts, hotels and spas in Asia, America, Africa and Middle East) conducted a one day product training session for the travel trade partners in Ahmedabad, Gujarat. The session was attended by the leading travel agents from the region and highly appreciated the event. During the event, the representatives from RezLive.com and Banyan Tree and Resorts tried to brief the respective travel agents about their product and services and even had a question and answer round with them.

Jaal Shah, Group Managing Director – RezLive.com, says “We were very happy to greet the travel partners and briefed them about our products and services and what they can expect from us in the near future. Platforms like this helps us to impart the correct information to the travel agents and listen to their queries(if any) and give them the best solution. We will be conducting many such fruitful sessions in other parts of the country, in order to have a better connect with the travel agents.
