This incredible roadshow was made possible by the invaluable support of Mr. Hussain Dalal, Market Manager Leisure – West & South, Saudi Tourism Authority. We are incredibly grateful for his presentation in showcasing the hidden gems and captivating experiences that Saudi Arabia has to offer. His involvement was crucial in bringing this event to life and highlighting the unique travel opportunities available in Saudi Arabia.

During the event, the RezLive team highlighted the extensive benefits and exceptional support that agents receive by partnering with their preferred global travel wholesaler, RezLive.com. Our commitment to enhancing travel experiences and driving innovation within the industry was showcased through our advanced booking platform, diverse travel products, and dedicated customer service. This roadshow exemplified our unwavering dedication to empowering travel agents with the tools and knowledge they need to create unforgettable journeys for their clients.

"We are thrilled to have ignited a passion for exploring Saudi Arabia amongst Surat's travel agents," said Jaal Shah, Group Managing Director at Travel Designer Group. "We are confident that this newfound enthusiasm will translate into unforgettable journeys for their clients."

RezLive continues to be at the forefront of the travel industry, fostering connections and creating unparalleled travel experiences. The success of this roadshow underscores our dedication to promoting new and exciting destinations, ensuring that travel agents are well-equipped with the knowledge and resources they need to inspire their clients.
