

Confident about Surat travel agents' newfound enthusiasm for Saudi: RezLive's Jaal Shah

By T3 News Network May 31, 2024

791 0

Travel agents from Surat and nearby areas attended in large numbers, eager to learn more about this rapidly evolving destination. During the event, the RezLive team also highlighted the extensive benefits and exceptional support that agents receive by partnering with RezLive.com.

The B2B online travel wholesaler RezLive hosted a spectacular roadshow on May 28, 2024 at the Park Inn by Radisson in Surat, unveiling the wonders of Saudi Arabia to the local travel agents.

"We are thrilled to have ignited a passion for exploring Saudi Arabia amongst Surat's travel agents," said Jaal Shah, Group Managing Director at Travel Designer Group. "We are confident that his newfound enthusiasm will translate into unforgettable journeys for their clients."

Travel agents from Surat and nearby areas attended in large numbers, eager to learn more about this dynamic and rapidly evolving destination. The event was a resounding success, as per the company.

During the event, the RezLive team highlighted the extensive benefits and exceptional support that agents receive by partnering with RezLive.com. "Our commitment to enhancing travel experiences and driving innovation within the industry was showcased through our advanced booking platform, diverse travel products, and dedicated customer service. This roadshow exemplified our unwavering dedication to empowering travel agents with the tools and knowledge they need to create unforgettable journeys for their clients," an official statement from the company stated.