RezLive.com, a leading B2B global travel wholesaler, hosted a dynamic roadshow at the prestigious InterContinental Bahrain, an IHG Hotel, bringing together top hospitality brands and over 170 travel agents from across the region.

The event showcased RezLive.com's commitment to empowering travel agents through technology, partnerships, and curated experiences. Attendees were treated to insightful presentations from RezLive.com, highlighting its latest product innovations and global expansion milestones.

Prominent hotel partners added vibrancy to the evening, including:

- Jumeirah Gulf of Bahrain
- Hilton Bahrain City Centre Hotel and Residences
- Hilton Garden Inn Bahrain Bay
- Swiss-Belhotel Seef Bahrain
- Swiss-Belsuites Admiral Juffair
- Wyndham Grand Manama
- Mysk Al Fateh Residences

Each partner engaged with agents and contributed to the excitement by offering exclusive lucky draw vouchers, adding a celebratory touch to the networking experience.

The roadshow was graced by Mr. Jaal Shah, Founder of RezLive.com and Group Managing Director of Travel Designer Group, whose presence underscored the brand's strategic focus on regional growth and agent engagement. Reflecting on the event, Mr. Shah shared:

“Bahrain holds immense potential as a gateway to the GCC travel market. This roadshow is not just about showcasing our platform—it's about strengthening relationships, listening to our partners, and co-creating value for the future of travel.”

“At RezLive.com, we believe in empowering agents with more than just access—we offer trust, technology, and tailored support. Seeing the energy in the room tonight reaffirms our belief that collaboration is the cornerstone of sustainable growth.”

The evening concluded with a gala dinner and cocktails, fostering meaningful connections and celebrating the spirit of collaboration in B2B travel.
