Brief from rezlive.com

RezLive.com, a leading B2B global travel wholesaler, is excited to announce its expansion into the Canadian market through a strategic partnership with International Travel Inc, now serving as its official General Sales Agent (GSA). This collaboration brings enhanced services and exclusive opportunities to travel partners throughout Canada.

RezLive.com, the flagship product of the Travel Designer Group, is an award-winning, internationally recognized online booking platform that offers a comprehensive range of global travel products, including hotels, apartments, sightseeing tours, activities, and transfers. With an already strong presence in the Asia Pacific, Africa and Middle East regions, the Canadian expansion marks a pivotal milestone in the company's global growth strategy.

Through this partnership, International Travel Inc will provide Canadian travel agents seamless access to over 500,000 hotel rooms, 45,000+ sightseeing options, and 5,000+ transfer services across more than 900 global locations. Agents will also be able to book cruises instantly, adding further value to their offerings. RezLive.com's robust platform combines global inventory with local expertise, enabling agents to deliver superior travel solutions to their clients.

Key Features of RezLive.com for Canadian Travel Agents:

- RezRewards: Rewarding agents with points and incentives for increased bookings.
- Direct Hotel Connectivity: Providing access to the best available rates from leading hotel chains worldwide.
- Flexible Cancellation Policies: Offering adaptable terms to ensure customer satisfaction.
- Same-Day Check-In: Providing flexibility for last-minute bookings.
- Zero Payment Gateway Charges: Saving costs for agents with no additional payment gateway fees*.
- 24/7 Support: Offering comprehensive customer service, including live chat and ticketing options for agents.

"We are thrilled to offer Canadian travel agents a more efficient and profitable way to manage their bookings through our partnership with International Travel Inc," said Jaal Shah, Group Managing Director of the Travel Designer Group. "This expansion reinforces our commitment to growing in key markets while continuing to provide exceptional value and service to our travel partners."

"We are pleased to welcome Rezlive to our portfolio, marking a significant step in expanding our services across both leisure and corporate travel segments," said Girish Jethani, President of International Travels Inc., Canada. "We highly value this partnership and are confident that, together, we will enhance our ability to serve the Canadian market more effectively."
